Liz Darby

Social Equity Programs and Policies, Community Development Agency, County of Marin

Liz Darby is a consultant who has worked with the County of Marin since January of 2015. Working primarily with the Community Development Agency's Housing and Federal Grants Division, Liz's work focuses on affirmatively furthering fair housing and supporting the County's equity initiatives to address disparities and barriers that limit access and opportunities to basic needs, housing, education and employment. Her role with the County focuses on policies and practices that directly impact underserved communities and members of the protected classes.

Prior to Liz joining the County of Marin, she served as the Executive Director for the Marin City Community Development Corporation. Liz has been a Marin County resident for over 30 years, and is the mother of 2 adult children.
