Successfully Housing People with Disabilities

An overview of federal and state fair housing laws, followed by small group discussions to help find practical solutions to commonly asked questions from housing providers, service providers, and tenants on reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities during the application, occupancy, and eviction stages.

The program will include an interactive break-out session. Participants are requested to actively participate and have their cameras on during the session.

Conference appropriate for:

- Rental housing providers in the public and private sectors
- Resident & property managers
- Staff of assisted living facilities
- Service providers and advocates, including fair housing staff
- Persons with disabilities
- Attorneys and legal services staff
- Anyone who works with persons with special needs
