HELP INVESTIGATE HOUSING DISCRIMINATION! BECOME AN INVESTIGATOR!

Fair Housing Advocates of Northern California (FHANC) is a non-profit agency dedicated to promoting equal housing opportunities. FHANC is looking for investigators! No experience required. Investigators contact rental agents and provide a detailed report about the experience. FHANC compares reports of investigators to determine if there is any evidence of illegal housing discrimination.

Investigators are paid $55.00 for site visits and $30.00 for phone tests, and are reimbursed for expenses such as mileage ($0.545/mile) and bridge tolls.

An investigator must:

- Have good observation skills and be able to write clear, objective reports.
- Have reliable transportation.
- Be available approximately 3-5* hours for each investigation, some of which may be done on weekends or evenings.
- Attend a training session and conduct a practice test (for which you will receive a $25 stipend).

This should not be considered a full-time or regular part-time employment. An investigator will be called to work on an as-needed basis. Due to federal funding requirements, investigators must not have any convictions for felonies or any crimes involving fraud or perjury in the last 7 years. Investigators must not be employed in the housing industry.
